HE SAVED THE SHIP

Heroic Act of the Chief Gunner's Mate Prevented Battleship Missouri's Destruction.

THE TOTAL NUMBER OF DEATHS, 32

The Estimate Damage Caused by the Explosion on the Big War Vessel is $60,000.

The Funeral of 17 of the Seamen Took Place Thursday Afternoon, Each Ship of the Fleet Being Represented.

Pensacola, Fla., April 15.—That the battleship Missouri had a narrow escape from both being blown to pieces by the explosion of a magazine and also being beached, came to light on Thursday. Capt. William S. Cowles prevented the latter when the vessel was within 250 yards of the beach by giving orders that the ship's course be changed. Chief Gunner's Mate Monson saved the ship and the lives of over 600 men by jumping into the open magazine and closing the door behind him. It is stated, though not by officers of the Missouri, that when the officers heard the explosion in the turret and saw the fire lapping through the top they realized the hot magazine would next explode and headed the ship for the beach, intending to beach her if possible before the explosion. Capt. Cowles quickly stopped the plan and put the ship back to sea. When the first explosion occurred in the turret the men in the handling room knew in an instant what occurred. The big magazine door was open and standing against it were four charges of powder. Without a moment's hesitation Gunner's Mate Monson shoved these aside and jumped into the magazine, pulling the door closed after him. The magazine was totally flooded with water and when the men opened the door they found Monson barely alive, water having reached his neck.

The damage to the battleship is much greater than was at first stated. In addition to the large amount of ammunition ruined by the magazine being flooded, which will amount to thousands of dollars, the after turret is also badly injured, the top being burned and warped and all brass work melted inside. The hoist is a charred mass and the mechanism of the guns completely ruined. The estimated damage caused by the explosion is $60,000.

The total list of dead now numbers 32, one man having expired Wednesday night and two men Thursday. It is hardly probable that other deaths will occur. The funeral of 17 of the seamen occurred Thursday afternoon and each ship of the fleet was represented, fully 5,000 men being present, while thousands from the city were in attendance. Every place of business was closed for the afternoon and flags over all buildings placed at half-mast.

The bodies of the officers and eight of the seamen were shipped to their former homes Thursday night and the others are being held to await advices from relatives. Three of the bodies interred Thursday afternoon will be disinterred and shipped to their relatives. The Missouri will not conclude her target practice, but will go to New York to be docked as soon as the court of inquiry makes its findings.

R. Adm. Harris has received from Mrs. Church, wife of Col. W. C. Church, of New York, $100 for the fund for the relief of the families of those killed in the Missouri disaster.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE LIST.

A Bill introduced in the Senate to Establish It.

Washington, April 15.—Senator Proctor introduced a bill which will be favorably reported from the committee on military affairs to authorize the president to reward distinguished or especially meritorious service rendered by certain officers of the active list of the army. The bill provides for the creation of a "distinguished service list," to include five colonels, six lieutenant colonels, 18 majors, 10 captains and five first lieutenants. Appointments to the distinguished service list are to be made on the specific recommendation of the board as near permanent as may be, of five general officers of the active list of the army.

Newport, Ky., April 15.—The board of aldermen Thursday night heard an ordinance prohibiting expectorating on the floors of either traction or electric street cars. The ordinance was referred to the committee on laws and city attorney.

Don't drink iced water. Cool water quenches thirst much better than ice cold fluid.

NEW COUNTY OF BECKHAM.

Glaring Errors Have Been Discovered in the Creating of It.

Frankfort, Ky., April 15.—The case of Carter county vs. Brooks and Zimmerman, which involves the constitutionality of the act creating the new county of Beckham, was argued in the court of appeals Thursday. The point urged is that the new county does not contain 400 square miles of territory, as required by the constitution, and that the counties of Lewis and Carter will be left with fewer than 400 square miles of territory if the new county is created; that the new county line is less than ten miles from the county of Carter, which is also contrary to the constitution. When this case was filed the alleged mistake in making the survey of the new county had not been discovered, but in the argument before the court of appeals Friday the glaring errors in the survey will be discussed and exhibited to the judges by plots and maps, which show that the lines as called for in the bill run over into the state of Ohio and include Vanceburg in the new county.

HE WILL GO TO PRISON.

A Boy of Eleven Years Was Prosecuted By His Mother.

Owensboro, Ky., April 15.—Willis Kelly, aged 11, was Thursday sentenced to serve two years in prison for the theft of a watch.

His mother appeared against him, and said that he had been stealing everything that was loose since he was five years old.

The boy admitted his guilt and said he can not help stealing when nobody is looking.

AGREED ON A COMPROMISE.

Suit Against the Receiver of a Building Association to Be Dismissed.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—The Louisville Trust Co. has agreed to accept a compromise of the suit against W. R. Logan, absconding receiver of the Kentucky Building and Loan association. The American Bonding Co., of Baltimore, will pay $37,500 and the suit will be dismissed. Logan who is said to be in South Africa, is expected to return home.

Price of Burley Tobacco Advanced.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—Within the last three weeks all grades of burley tobacco have been enhanced in price from $5 to $10 per 100 pounds. Burley is generally used in making plug tobacco, and one sale of $25.50 for 100 pounds, the price is higher than it has been since 1887.

Big Price Paid.

Owingsville, Ky., April 15.—James N. Hise, buyer for the Continental Tobacco Co., Thursday purchased from James M. Richard 400,000 pounds of tobacco at a private price, believed to be about 14 cents a pound. It is estimated that Mr. Richard realized about $30,000 on the investment.

Lewis Wilbert Waves Examination.

Madisonville, Ky., April 15.—The preliminary trial of Lewis Wilbert charged with the murder of Gus McIntosh, at Mankin last week, was called in the Hopkins county court here. He waived trial and was remanded to jail to await action by the higher court.

Shot Fired By His Sister.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—Fannie Cundiff testified in the criminal court that she fired the shot that killed Tom Bishop, for whose murder William Cundiff, her half-brother, is on trial in the criminal court. She said she killed Bishop in defense of her brother and herself.

Pacer Sold.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—Morning Star, a green pacer, was sold by Dave McCleary to Alonzo McDonald, of New York, for $9,500. Morning Star paced a mile in 2:05 flat at Douglas Park before he went into winter quarters. He is a son of Star Pointer and is five years old.

For Hearst's Newspaper.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—Max Ihnsen, W. R. Hearst's representative, is said to be negotiating for the purchase of the old Masonic Temple building site, for the purpose of erecting a building for a new Louisville newspaper. The property is held at $420,000.

Mayfield, Ky., April 15.—Information has been received here that James M. Utley, who was born and reared at Olive, Marshall county, was shot and killed by a deputy sheriff at Searchlight, Nev., March 24, 1904. He left here early in life and went west.

Went Down With the Ship.

St. Petersburg, April 15.—Nicholas T. Kravtchenko, the well-known Russian literary man, who was acting as correspondent for the Associated Press at Port Arthur, it is believed, went down with the Petropavlovsk. Telegrams to him remain unanswered.

MINE RESPONSIBLE

The Official Version of the Sinking of the Russian Battleship Petropavlovsk.

THE MEN WERE AT BREAKFAST.

Terrific Explosion of the Boilers Followed by a Detonation From the Well Stored Magazines.

Huge Gaps Were Torn in the Hull and Water Rushed In—Later the Vessel Rolled on Her Side and Sank.

St. Petersburg, April 15.—A press representative obtained Thursday night what is practically the official version of the sinking of the battleship Petropavlovsk at Port Arthur and it clears up to a great extent the mysterious features of that vessel's destruction. The version is as follows:

Retiring before the advance of a superior fleet, which was not fighting its progress, the Russian squadron approached the entrance to the harbor. It was shortly after 8 o'clock in the morning and most of the officers and members of the crew were at breakfast on the flagship. Vice Adm. Makaroff was eating breakfast in his cabin and the ward room was crowded with officers surrounding the tables. On the bridge Grand Duke Cyril, his friend, Lieut. von Kobe, Capt. Jakovlev, commanding the vessel, and two other officers were on watch examining the narrow entrance preparatory to entering it.

At about 8:30 o'clock there was a terrific explosion of the boilers, followed a few minutes later by a detonation from the well stored magazines.

Huge gaps were torn in the hull of the ship and the water rushed in. The center of gravity having gone, the ship rolled on her side and sank.

All information tends to prove that a mine was responsible for the destruction of the Petropavlovsk.

The scene below will never be described, as, so far as known, not a single person between decks succeeded in escaping. The hot steam, which scalded the men on deck, indicated what must have been the character of the death met by those in the engine room. The men on deck were thrown in all directions, those falling into the water swimming and grasping the wreckage to which some of them were able to cling.

The remainder of the squadron immediately stopped and lowered small boats and the torpedo boats steamed as quickly as possible to the rescue of the survivors.

The escape of Grand Duke Cyril and Lieut. von Kobe was nothing short of miraculous. The force of the explosion sent Grand Duke Cyril flying across the bridge and the base of his skull struck on an iron stanchion. Fortunately he did not lose consciousness. Believing that the ship was about to sink he clambered hastily down its side and boldly plunged into the water. He succeeded in reaching a piece of wreckage, to which he clung. The grand duke was in the water about 20 minutes before he was picked up by a torpedo boat. Lieut. von Kobe was also found swimming and was picked up. Capt. Jakovlev was thrown against a stanchion with such force that he was killed.

Grand Duke Cyril's injuries were severe. Besides receiving a blow on the neck, his legs were burned and he suffered serious shock. He was taken immediately to a hospital at Port Arthur, where his injuries were attended to. He will remain there for three days and will then be brought to St. Petersburg.

Count Grube, aide to Grand Duke Vladimir, accompanied by a physician, started Thursday night for the far east. He will meet Grand Duke Cyril probably at Baikal.

The exact number of Vice Adm. Makaroff's staff on board the Petropavlovsk when she sank is unknown, but it is thought by the admiralty to be probably 15 or 16. The exact number of the crew lost is also unknown. The Petropavlovsk had a complement of about 650, of which 52 were saved at last accounts.

Dynamited By Nihilists.

St. Petersburg, April 15.—The son of Gen. Kazarkoff was killed as the result of a dynamite outrage in his room at the Hotel Du Nord. The police, it is added, discovered documents indicating the author of the outrage. It is believed the work of nihilists, who are becoming active.

Death of Dr. James W. Grant.

Lancaster, Ky., April 15.—Dr. James W. Grant, the oldest dentist in Lancaster, died after a brief illness of pneumonia, aged 70. He was prominently connected in this section and in Richmond, Va.

THE TORPEDO FLOTILLA.

The First of It Arrives at Manila After a 15,000 Mile Cruise.

Washington, April 15.—The secretary of the navy Thursday was informed by cable of the arrival at Cavite of the first torpedo flotilla, consisting of the torpedo boat destroyers Decatur, Bainbridge, Barry, Dale and Chauncey, under convoy of the cruiser Buffalo, concluding a cruise of nearly 15,000 miles. This cruise covered a period of four months and extended over half way around the globe, which is the longest run ever made by vessels of this type. The flotilla started from Hampton Roads for the Philippine islands on December 12 last, and made the trip without an incident. This successful trip has demonstrated that torpedo boats are capable of long sea voyages under their own steam, a feat that formerly was considered impossible. These small vessels were sent to the Philippines to serve as the coast defense squadron of the islands.

SUPPLIES FOR THE ARMY.

The Chief of Ordnance Department Gives a Large Order.

Washington, April 15.—Gen. Crozier, chief of the ordnance department of the arm, has ordered the manufacture at Watervliet arsenal of 11 five-inch barbette carriages, model of 1903, and 200 carriages for 2.5-inch life saving guns for the treasury department. Three thousand hospital corps knives of new model has been ordered manufactured. Gen. Crozier has ordered the purchase of 5,000 of bolos with sheaths for issue to the troops in the Philippines. In the future saber scabbards for officers will be made of steel, nickel plated instead of German silver, and in order to obtain better results in gallery practice an elongated bullet, weighing 107 grains, has been adopted in place of the round ball.

SURROUNDED THE JAIL.

A Mob Threatened to Hang a Confessed Murderer.

Denver, Colo., April 15.—Specials from Central City say that a mob has surrounded the jail there and demanded that the sheriff turn over to them Azel D. Galbraith, the self-confessed murderer of his wife and 9-year-old boy. Sheriff Cody arrived in Central City Thursday evening from Denver with Galbraith and as soon as the latter's presence in the city became known a mob began forming. At midnight the jail was surrounded, but Sheriff Cody, who had armed about 20 deputies with rifles, announced that he would kill any man who attempted to enter the jail and this seemed to check the men. Galbraith was until recently a prominent mine manager and was held in high esteem.

THE WESTERN MINERS.

It Is Believed Their Strike Will Be Called Off Next Month.

Telluride, Colo., April 15.—Adjt. Gen. Bell, who is enforcing martial law in San Miguel county, expressed the opinion Thursday that the convention of the Western Federation of Miners which is to be held at Butte, Mont., next month will call off the strike here or give the miners authority to do so. "I am reliably informed," said the general, "that at the next convention the power vested in the executive board by the last convention to call strikes, will be annulled, and that in the future no strikes can be ordered except by referendum vote of the members."

THE DEWEYS PLEADED GUILTY.

Each Fined $150, Court Costs and Sentenced to One Day in Jail.

Topeka, Kan., April 15.—C. P. Dewey and Chauncey Dewey Thursday pleaded guilty in the United States district court to the fencing of government land in Rawlins and contiguous counties. They were each fined $150 and court costs and a sentence of one day in the Shawnee county jail. The troubles arising over the fencing of these lands had much to do with the bringing about of the Berry feud and killing.

St. Petersburg, April 15.—It has been definitely decided that Vice Adm. Skrydloff, commander of the Black Sea fleet, will succeed the late Vice Adm. Makaroff as commander-in-chief of the Russian naval forces in the far east.

Washington, April 15.—Senator Frye introduced a bill providing for the retirement of letter carriers who have reached the age of 65 and who have served for 35 years. The bill gives the carriers retired pay at 80 per cent. of their salaries.

Does Not Want the Chairmanship.

Washington, April 15.—Several senators have discussed with Senator Elkins the advisability of making him chairman of the republican national committee. He emphatically asserted that he would not think of taking the place under any consideration.

SENATOR DIETRICH

A Special Committee of Congress Declares He is Not Guilty of Wrong Doing.

THE CHARGES ARE NOT SUSTAINED

Investigating Committee Was Composed of Senators Hoar, Platt, Spooner, Cockrell and Pettus.

They Found That He Had Not Violated the Statutes of the United States Nor Any Corrupt or Unworthy Conduct.

Washington, April 15.—Senator Dietrich, of Nebraska, has been declared by a special committee of congress to be not guilty of any violation of the statutes of the United States or of any corrupt or unworthy conduct relating either to the appointment of Jacob Fisher as postmaster at Hastings, Neb., or the leasing of the building in that city to the United States for a post office. The committee which investigated the charges against Senator Dietrich was composed of Senators Hoar, Platt, of Connecticut, Spooner, Cockrell and Pettus. Three members of the committee are republicans and two democrats. The report is unanimous.

The report reviews the testimony at length and the conclusion is reached that the charges can not be sustained. The committee, with reference to the lease of the building at Hastings, finds that it was effected while Mr. Dietrich was governor and before he became senator, that it extended for ten years and that the law governing in such matters was not violated. The report says the committee admitted not only such evidence against Senator Dietrich as would have been competent in a court of justice, but also a great deal of hearsay testimony, being all which was brought to the attention of the committee as a possible clue to further information.

This course, it says, was taken with the consent of Senator Dietrich and it is stated that the committee "Did not determine how far this proceeding would have been justified for any reason, without such consent, even if they had carefully refrained from attaching any weight to it in their final decision. But it, in fact, did not in the least tend to shake or affect the conclusion they have reached."

THE PHILIPPINE BILL.

The House of Representatives Passed the Measure Thursday.

Washington, April 15.—Senate—The senate devoted the entire day to consideration of the bill for the government of the Panama canal zone and Mr. Morgan again occupied the floor most of the day. The discussion related principally to details of governing the canal, but some consideration also was given to Mr. Hale's amendment requiring the use of American bottoms in the shipment of canal supplies to the zone. Consideration of the bill was not concluded.

House—The house of representatives passed the Philippine bill following which there was an extended debate over a resolution to permit Col. Thomas W. Symons, of the engineer corps of the army, to serve on the advisory board of consulting engineers in connection with internal improvements in the state of New York. It was adopted by an overwhelming vote. The general deficiency bill was taken up and Mr. Hamilton (Mich.) discussed capital and labor, while Mr. Cochran (Mo.) criticized the "usurpation of the legislative power by the executive," and said that former President Cleveland had given the most notable instance of such usurpation in forcing his financial policies on the people.

able session Ebenezer Presbytery ad-

HON. THOMAS M. GREEN.

Extract From Funeral Sermon of Rev.
John Barbour, D. D., at Danville.
Deserved Tribute to a Former Resident of Maysville.

Leaving the fuller review of Colonel Green's life to others, I desire to signalize, now, what in my judgment was the chief charm of his personality. It was not in his superb capacity. I presume that no one ever held a five minute conversation with him who did not perceive that he was in the presence of a remarkable person.
And this extended to his whole being. As perfectly as any man I ever saw he embodied the wise formula of the Latins—"a sound mind in a sound body."

He had inherited a fine physique which developed by early discipline and never abused by dissipation became the responsive instrument of a cultivated intellect, and body and mind he held under regulated control, so that whilst the impression was given at once of very great strength, it was of strength held under wise control. He knew himself well, and under the greatest excitement or provocation might be relied upon to act with coolness and self determination.

I will not enlarge upon his marvellous memory,
his infallible logical powers, his gifts of speech,
his penetration to the core of every subject he ever investigated. I have never met a man who impressed me as having a greater power of brain,

a clearer apprehension or a stronger grasp of whatever he undertook to discuss. In his prime he had no superior in this State as an editorial writer, and when scarcely out of college made a great impression as a speaker in a political canvass of the State. I remember to have heard Dr.

E. P. Humphrey express his astonishment at the power he thus early exhibited on the platform.

He was a man of extraordinary mental endowment. But this was not his greatest feature.

Nor was it his remarkable courage. John Knox was not more absolutely fearless of the face of man or more unmoved from duty by blandishment or influence of any kind. His courage rang from the physical prowess which bespeaks

the finest discrimination as to what is worth contending for and the willingness to risk

all in its defense.

He was in his time a great public servant. As an editor of the public press he held himself responsible for the formation of public opinion a trustee of great public interests. He never failed to advocate what he thought was right or for the public advantage at the behest of party, chirch or personal favor, and he would not be still when he felt somebody should speak, because the cause or the offender never so highly entrenched in office or in popular favor.

I have already partly anticipated what I regard as the strongest tone in the full diapason chord of his character. It was his perfect genuineness, his abhorrence of sham or unreality. This was the key to his mind and to his whole career. He would not glaze over or see things differently from what they actually were. His mind worked by necessity in the atmosphere of the real. This I regard as the underlying explanation of his great historical information. It was his reverence for a fact. If he had what is called the historical imagination he used it only to better reproduce the real, to follow in the footsteps of those who have made our history and indeed

made us what we are, and to pierce through all envelopes, all distances, all times, to see the real people and to understand them as they were.

And this explains, too, the controversies into which he was drawn. I know from life long acquaintance with him that there was never a more peace-loving, kindler soul. But he loved truth more, and the public interests that necessitated the speaking of the truth, and he stopped

for no man if conscience said: go forward.

His life is therefore a valuable part of the history of our State at one of its most critical periods. He knew his State as well as any man

within its borders—its history and the influences that make it what it is, and she had no worthier

more typical son in all her broad extent.

In every community in which he ever lived,

especially in his more active days, he made his impression, and wrought his mind into the life about him. He had a great heart. He was as tender as a woman, as courteous as any knight

of chivalry, a most delightful host, an affectionate friend. He had all the marks of breeding which betoken the gentleman in the truest sense. I cannot enlarge upon his romantic love for those nearest to him, and indeed for all his kindred, and I only touch this to say that there were a few other friends whom he loved with the same enthusiasm and served with a similar devotion. In the light of his searching inquisitions of character there could be no prouder

consciousness in any man's mind than to know that he was loved and trusted by such a man.

I cannot go as far as my heart would carry me to-day in my personal testimony to him. I remember him first as the gifted kinsman who when I was a child came to live in our community and for a time in our home. I remember my father's pride in him, and I recall incident

after incident and stage after stage in their cereer together as they stood up and battled for the right.

He was a man whose integrity was unquestioned.

His motives were unassailable. And he came naturally by his lofty and high-minded characteristics. Descended on both sides from some of the finest strains of blood, the Marshalls

and other noted families, he was to the manner born. He was the son of Judge John Green of Lincoln than whom the State never had a nobler or more useful citizen. Dr. N. L. Rice in describing some of the leaders of the Synod of Kentucky wrote of Judge Green that he was a man so complete and grand in his endowments that few such men ever appear at a time in any generation.

In my meetings with him in later life I could not mark the growth in him of religious conviction and an increasing reverence for religious things. The basis of his being was his moral earnestness, his insistence on the right.

On one of my recent visits to Danville he said to me, "John, I have prayed that all windleanness might be taken out of my heart."

Was there ever a nobler prayer or one more certain to be answered?

His family and his friends have a rich legacy

in his character, and his State may point to him

as one of her greatest and noblest sons.

Plant Seeds That Will Grow!

Each year we lay in a fresh stock of seeds, as that is the only way for us to be sure of their productiveness. You had better make use of the results of your year's work
by using these fresh seeds.
It would be poor judgment to risk your money, time and labor by planting seeds of uncertain value, besides the fresh ones cost no more than the other kind. We have a complete line of all varieties
both in bulk and packet.
